

Avian X, World On Fire

Out of shapeless mass
You have to make your own
Would it be
A stumbling block,
Or a stepping stone?
You can be victorious
You can have it all
The fruit of fear is poisonous
Paralyzed, you can't go on

Burning desire
Runs right through me
The world is on fire
But the flames are soothing

It's in your blood
You know exactly who you are
You can't give up now
Look at you, you've come this far
Can you erase your dream and easily forget?
Deep in your heart you know that
You can't do that
