

Avicii, I'll Be Gone

I gave my world away
A million rainy days
Such a shame in a way
And no one else that I

Sacrificed everything
A million broken dreams
And I don't want to stay
I did it anyway

The stars all rise
The moon won't shine
The stars fall out of the sky
And I could feel your guided light
All through the night
All through your life

I'll be gone for you know each other
Long, long, gone
Now the world is spinning, like the sun
Now the day is burning
I don't mind, spending some time, on my own
