

Avril Lavigne, All about.

I gotta leave you alone,
You're the one that I want
I want you to be happy
But just stay on your own
If we can't love each other at all
If we can't live it and we know
All about what we have to do
All about what we're feeling now
We can't command our feelings
By our mind
We can't choose who we'll love
And that is right
This true care, this true love
I want it to be real
All we want, all we build
By these years
If we can't love each other at all
If we can't live it and we know
All about what we have to do
All about what we're feeling now
They won't take it from us
They can't cut our breath
They can't give what we need
They can't build what we did
The love can reveal us
Our true soul
The love can reveal us
Our true meaning of living
If we can't love each other at all
If we can't live it and we know
All about what we have to do
All about what we're feeling now
