

Avril Lavigne, Bitchin' Summer

Everyone is waiting on the bell
A couple seconds, we'll be raising hell
The sun is shining down, school is finally out
Nothing matters so we might as well

Everybody's bakin' in the sun
Come and party, do it while we're young
Move your body, when you hear the drum
So put your hands up

It's gonna be a bitchin' summer
We'll be living fast, kicking ass together
Like high school lovebirds
Gonna have a blast, make it last forever

I'll pick you up at the liquor store
Hurry up, we can fit one more
It's now or never
It's gonna gonna be be a bitchin' summer

Oh, bitchin' summer
Oh, bitchin' summer

Throwing empty bottles in the fire
Whiskey's got us singing like a choir
We're all gonna run when the police come
But in the moment we are so alive

Everybody's bakin' in the sun
Come and party, do it while we're young
Move your body, when you hear the drum
So put your hands up

It's gonna be a bitchin' summer
We'll be living fast, kicking ass together
Like high school lovebirds
Gonna have a blast, make it last forever

I'll pick you up at the liquor store
Hurry up, we can fit one more
It's now or never
It's gonna gonna be be a bitchin' summer

Oh, bitchin' summer
Oh, bitchin' summer

Right right near the beach, the party don't stop
If we don't get harassed by the motherfuckin' cops
Quarter tank of gas, about a half a pack
My cell phone's dying but there's no turning back

I can feel the breeze steering with my knees
Drumming on the dashboard, bumpin' to the beat
Hit the windshield wiper, searchin' for my lighter
I gotta get right before this all-nighter

It's gonna be a bitchin' summer
We'll be living fast, kicking ass together
Like high school lovebirds
Gonna have a blast, make it last forever

I'll pick you up at the liquor store
Hurry up, we can fit one more
It's now or never

It's gonna gonna be be a bitchin' summer

Oh, bitchin' summer
Oh, bitchin' summer

Pick you up at the liquor store
Hurry up, we can fit one more
It's now or never
It's gonna gonna be be a bitchin' summer
