

Avril Lavigne, Catching

I am only human
But not everything you say is true
So then again
Do my secrets come to an end
Like the way I see you
Catching snakes in the sand
Like the way I saw you
Catching snakes in the sand.
Out on the bridge
I thought I saw you
Somewhere between now and never
So do my secrets come to an end
Like the way I see you
Catching snakes in the sand.
Like the way I saw you
Catching snakes in the sand.
Take me home
'Cause there's no other place
I'd rather be.
Take me back home.
Cause there's no other place
Take me back to where all my secrets end
The way you were catching snakes in the sand.
I am only human
But not everything you say is true
So then again
Do my secrets come to an end
Like the way I see you
Catching snakes in the sand
Like the way I saw you
Catching snakes in the sand.
