

Avril Lavigne, Déjà Vu (Deja Vu)

Am I insane expecting you to change?
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu
It's time to act your age
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu

Just admit it, you're an asshole, living in a castle
You think you're better than everyone
But you can't buy me with something shiny
'Cause I am not like everyone

I think I've had it, enough of your bullshit
You're not romantic, you for sure are hopeless
I'll buy a range rover just to run you over and call you out

Am I insane expecting you to change?
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu
It's time to act your age
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu
Pills and alcohol
Excuses, yeah, I've heard them all
Insane, expecting you to change
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu

Oh-oh, oh-oh (Over and over again)
Déjà vu
Oh-oh, oh-oh (Over and over again)
Déjà vu

You think that the number inside of your bank account
Is the way into my heart
They say you're a saint, but you act like a sinner
Yeah, I should've known right from the start

But I think I've had it, enough of emotions
You're not romantic, you for sure are hopeless
When in doubt, I'll take a picture of us and I'll cut you out

Am I insane expecting you to change?
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu
It's time to act your age
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu
Pills and alcohol
Excuses, yeah, I've heard them all
Insane, expecting you to change
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu

I've seen this all a thousand times (A thousand times)
Stuck in the memory
I can't go back and change your mind (Can't change your mind)
Why does this keep happening?
Right time, wrong situation
Was all my love wasted?
I've seen this all a thousand times (Too many times)

Am I insane expecting you to change?
It's the same thing over and over again

Déjà vu
It's time to act your age
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu
Pills and alcohol
Excuses, yeah, I've heard them all
Insane, expecting you to change
It's the same thing over and over again
Déjà vu

Oh-oh, oh-oh (Over and over again)
Déjà vu
Oh-oh, oh-oh (Over and over again)
Déjà vu
