

Avril Lavigne, Your not worth it

If only you could see the world through my eyes you'd see the girl that's inside and you'd see her crying you could watch her mope around sitting all alone on the ground and you can't do anything about it chorus

(but) I'm not gonna let you see what you have done to me 'cause I know you're not worth it and I'll get over you but the question is will you get over me?
I can feel you staring at me and I know you want me back I'll just show off what you can't have 'cause that's the way it is *chorus*x2

Its all you're fult you're the one that left I actually wanted to work it out but now i realize you're just not worth it
