

Awaken, A Simple Love

(G.Snowcat)

A simple love without explanation

A simple love it's no destitution

Every night could be my judgement day

Trial by hate

A simple game it's all I ask from you

A simple maze I'm lost inside of you

It's a mayday from the lower room

Too cold to sleep

So I'll drink the poison

Trying to undeceive you

Nostalgic overdose

Love can be a reason

Cheaper than a gun

Simple words and farewell

A simple end to an endless story

A simple trip with a one-way ticket

Suicidal desire to fall

Winter is dead

Time will close the autumn

Songs from october nights

Someday I'll be caught

Bitter ending day

Questions banging hot

Thirteen was the number
