

Away From Here, Suffocate

I'll steal your breathe away
Just like you stole my heart
Cold fingers around your neck
I'll suffocate my love out of you
And I'll steal away everything including memories
You don't deserve them
And I'll steal your life away
Your life is meaningless
Just like our memories

I'll steal your breathe away
Just like you stole my heart
Cold fingers around your neck
I'll suffocate my love out of you

And I'm screaming at you
Through that tiny hole
That hole you ripped through my throat my words drip out
Like blood out of a wound
Words that will stain you

And I know you don't think
This is how I should end this song
Thats why I wrote it this way
Just to hear you say something I don't wanna hear
Cause anything that comes out of your mouth
I'd rather shove it right back in
And watch you choke!....
