

Away From Here, Trigger Moment

You pull my heart out on my sleeve
Expose it for everyone to see
The city lights are the guidelines
To your own beauty's demise
So why do you make me feel like
I am, I am nothing at all
Well maybe something
But it's useless, and decayed

And at the trigger moment I will smile
Antagonize, whoa
Rebel against everything
So where's the gun now?
(So where's the gun now?)(X2)

Tame this beast
Time to feast
Fill him with lead
Take that bullet
Aimed for my head
And point it back towards yourself

And at the trigger moment I will smile
Antagonize, whoa
Rebel against everything
So where's the gun now?
(So where's the gun now?)(X2)

....

And at the trigger moment I will smile
Antagonize, whoa
Rebel against everything
So where's the gun now?
(So where's the gun now?)(X2)

I'm waiting
Outside your mind (X16)
