

Axium, The Finish Line

I've read all I need to
From the look on the mirror
It's getting much clearer for me
And others around
That I'm not who I say
Maybe just for today, I am

Perfection's not guaranteed
'cause I don't know what I need
Work in progress, it seems
This is me

I'm not gonna stop you
From wanting much better
For needing to weather this storm
Of assurances broken
That are swarming our senses
Breaking down our defenses again

Perfection's not guaranteed
'cause I don't know what I need
Work in progress, it seems
This is me

Perfection's not guaranteed
'cause I don't know what I need
Work in progress, it seems
This is me
