

Axxis, I Hear You Cry

I said why
I really don't know why - know why
You want me to deny
All the things we're fighting for
Right now
There's nothing left to say - to say
You've thrown it all away
The passion passion and the good memories of our lives

How am I supposed to feel
What am I supposed to say
Do you hear me crying through the rain

[Chorus]
I hear you cry
No words for lovers
I don't know why
The flames still burn
I hear you cry
In dreams for lovers
I don't know how...
I could pretend
Yes, and now
I'm waiting for your soul

I will fight
For all the things we've lost
And nail it on my cross
We'll burn the town with a million flames

Hell; I'm still under your spell
Don't want it for the path
Dive into our wishing well
Now we're standing here alone
... of my love are grown
Do you hear me crying through the rain?

I hear you cry
Don't want us for lovers.
I don't know why
The flames still burn
I hear you cry
In dreams for lovers
I don't know how...
I could pretend
When you cry

Do you hear me?
Can you touch me?
Let all black shadows fade
When I hold you, and I love you
Ah-ah, Ah-ah
Let me save you
I will pave you
It's a land of pages
The pages of our book of love

[Solo]

I can hear your crying through the rain

I hear you cry
Don't want us for lovers
I don't know why

The flames still burn
I hear you cry
In dreams for lovers
I don't know how...
I could pretend
I hear you cry
I hear you cry
