

Ayreon, Sail Away To Avalon

AYREON (BARRY HAY)

Noble men in shining armour,
Knights of the table round,
Go out and ride like thunder!
Cross the sky at the speed of...
Sound the horn, 'n blow the trumpets,
Upon the castle wall,
Now the quest has started,
Listen to the prophet's call!
The prophet's call, yeah yeah

Sail away!
Sail away to Avalon!
The journey has begun.
Sail away through the night!
Sail away, never die!
The gods are at your side.
Sail away through the night, sail away!

Ride on the road to glory,
Find the holy grail
And learn the ancient story's
More than just a...
Fairy-tale about the key to life,
And all its mysteries,
You'll find the grail within you,
Slay the dragon in your dreams!

Sail away!
Sail away to Avalon!
The journey has begun.
Sail away through the night!
Sail away, never die!
The gods are at your side.
Sail away through the night...

Sail away!
Sail away to Avalon!
The journey has begun.
Sail away through the night!
Sail away, never die!
The gods are at your side.
Sail away through the night...
