

Azrael, Nostradamus

Sceptical visions
myths of a god Dreams from the future
he brought us all
far from religion
living in hell
Nobody believes you
fking mistake
In is books he wrote
forebodings and horrors
The story begins now prophecies of our time
The fire and the flame
The nations waiting for the day
A second opportunity
All our fate is in his eyes
It's not a movie
time will tell human disasters
that never end
Announced forebodings
Imminent war
Battle and death
spreading the blood
In is books...
No, a light in the sky
