

Aztek Trip, Anything

you said you'd anything anything i'll ask of you if i could use a hand
'nother time comes

i think i need you now find myself in way too deep left standing, suffocate all my breath and i'll wait do you think you'll have the time do you think you'll realize do you think that someday soon you'll feel alive again would you be a good friend would you stay till the end would it take too much of your time is this asking too much will i be out of luck

whatever happened to anything you said you'd wait for me there but you never showed up again somehow i should have known that everything would fall apart in the end we'll probably see you as asking in the end we'll probably see you as laughing did you ever think i'd call on you did you ever think it'd be so soon did you think that some day soon we'll feel alive again

Would it take too much of your time
Is this asking too much
Will i be out of luck

you keep it inside and you've wasted away you keep it inside all day would you do anything if i'd ask you
