

Azure Ray, Just A Faint Line

i called you on the phone i said i was confused and in a daze you said this uncertainty one day i would crave so i wrote down exactly how i wanna live and now it's a promise i'll never give and it's a faint line i trace to recreate the simblance of love of some stability
a simblance of love of some stability it's just a faint line i trace to recreate
a simblance of love of some stability
a simblance of love of some stability
a simblance of love of some stability
