

Azure Ray, Rest Your Eyes

you said to write you a song so here this is for you so as you toss through those lonely nights just know there's someone thinking of you everyone's waiting for the timing to be right and we hope it's coming soon so just rest your eyes and we'll be in love again oooo ooooo oooo oo

we talked and the moon was bright your words were glowing as they drifted out of sight and now the change of season sets in nothing nothing feels just right we fear these nights and then we compromise and the morning always comes so just rest your eyes and we'll be in love oooooo oooooo ooooo ooooo so just rest your eyes and then we'll be in love just rest your eyes and then we'll be in love again
