B.B. King, Marry You

It's the sugar so sweet
The kind I like to eat
You and me
Tell no one else about it

I'm gonna make you mine Cause I know we've got the time Now and then baby Hey I want you to know

I wanna marry you Isn't that what you want too I wanna marry you Isn't that what you want too

Come on in the back of my '57 Let me show you the way Way to heaven You're looking so sweet, yes you are I'll make sure that you got some heat

I've got you on my mind You know you've got my time Now and then baby I want you to know

I wanna marry you Isn't that what you want too I wanna marry you Isn't that what you want too

I'm falling in love with you
I'm in love with you
You make all my dreams come true
Make all my dreams come true
Falling in love with you
I wanna marry you

I wanna marry you Isn't that what you want too I wanna marry you Isn't that what you want too
