B.B. King, Woke Up This Morning

I woke up this morning, my baby was gone Woke up this morning, my baby was gone I've feel so bad, I'm all alone

I ain't got nobody, stayn' home with me I ain't got nobody, stayn' home with me My baby she's gone, I'm in misery

Well baby, I'm all alone Yes baby, I'm all alone I ain't had no lovin', since my baby's been gone All right

Oh baby, I'm all alone Oh baby, I'm all alone My baby she's gone, I'm in misery

Oh baby, come on stay with me Oh baby, come on stay with me My baby she's gone, I'm in misery

Oh baby, I'm all alone Oh baby, I'm all alone I ain't had no lovin', since my baby's been gone
