

B.o.B, Past My Shades (feat. Lupe Fiasco)

Well, if you ask me what's on my mind
You probably won't believe it
'Cause if life was one big pool, I'd be in the deep end
So I play my role and never ever speak it, like a secret
And all the while you tryna figure me out
But you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades

Well, ask me a question I tell you no lies
'Cause there's nothing to hide, my soul's in my eyes
And I'm ahead of my time but I cannot rewind
The only thing I fear is the mirror in my bathroom
People look and try and see a disguise
But there is nothing nobody can't see in light
If it's a song with a rhyme or a verse with a line
Then you understand my mind
But you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades

[Lupe Fiasco]

Who else but Lu else
You know I got two belts, the black and the white one
I begin in an i-master, I see in my eyeglasses
But they saying what I'm saying through is false like Ross
I can hear 'em through the wall like walk
This is where you just weigh my thoughts
I'm slave to myself and disobey my boss
It's all in disarray this parade I walk
They get amaze when they catch the chain I toss
Amidst disarray of different ways I talk
And it hangs from your brain if my chain you caught
Like I cough it out covering my mouth
I took the scales like the king of the south
Forgot that I was fat and lost my way
But now I'm back looking for the shade I saw
And not wonders, sky summers
So don't make me take off my stunnas
Bobby Ray you know you my numbas
And them deer can't see us like huntas
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades

Past my shades
Past my shades
And you can't see past my shades
Past my shades
Past my shades
