

B2K, Boys For Life

J Boog:

Yo

Why'd you have to bring this up man?

I mean it ain't like I forgot but

It's like I wasn't thinking about it man

Now that you wanna talk about it

You got me all watery in the eyes, ya know?

But uh, it's all good

I wanna tell ya'll 3

I love ya'll like ya'll love me

If ya'll kno what I'm talking about

Fizz, holla at ya boy

(Fizz)

Verse 1:

For the first 3 years we was on coatfax

No deals, no money but everybody had our back

We knew it would happen and that was for a fact

Until then we was watchin the Cosbys in the laundry mats

Scouring up change for a meal at Pizza Guy

No ride to Rosco's

We made our own sunrise

Gettin sick off Cheetos, Skittles, and Beniquo's

Marq yelling cause we ate his last taquito

Wishing for a bank account with at least 2 zeros

Playing ball all day sharing one Gatorade

No dogs of our own

So we walked Bear and Jane

Playing BB bridges

Hopping over gates just to go swimming

Yeah, We was bad tryna holla at older women (huh man)

Times was hard, you know we didn't get too much

But we always had each other, man that was enough

(CHORUSx2)

We been through thick n thin but we still here

No matter what goes down, we still friends til' the end

Ups n downs, yeah that's a hard knock life

yeah, its ride or die cause we boys for life

(ya heard)

(Fizz)

Verse 2:

It's gettin hard now, what are we to do now?

Years is passing

It's time to make moves now

We got our acts together, faced the bad weather.

Told ourselves it was either now or never

So we grabbed our stuff and started shoppin at labels

Performed demos and did whatever it takes

Damn, every label slammed the door in our face

But we kept our heads up

Til we found the right place

(ya know)

(Chorusx2)

(Fizz)

Verse 3:

We found a home

It's on

we in the game now

Chris and Max still make this thang crack now

We working with Tommy, Polly, and D.Mack now

Took us a while but we got a name now

A platinum album with dough up in the bank now

No more lounging around, we business men now

Epic helped us and put us in the right gear

Video and radio, thanks for the great year

I'm glad the time that it took was a struggle
So that when this time came, we'd be grateful and humble
We thank God for making this happen for us
We thank all our fans for having love in us
(So come on)
(CHORUSx2)
Omarion:
I know that you're watchin' over me
Thank God that you brought the joy to me
Now B2K has a story

(repeat x3)
