

B2K, Mexico

Mexico

I cry at night cause I can feel your pain deep down inside taken over me I've got to go this place is not for me just let it go and get over me kick around lost and then found called a fool the talk of the town I just pray just let her find you so you know what I had to do

Moving down to Mexico were aint nobody gonna find me sippin margaritas sinaritas passing by me asking me to stay a while but Im gonna half to tell you no. The spirits taken over now its time to be alone

Deep down inside
Deep down inside
Deep down inside

were aint no one gonna find me
asking me to stay a while but im gonna have to tell you no. The spirits taken over now its time to be alone.

My faith is gone dont talk just pray for me when your by yourself you just think of me nothing will replace the things that I been through so till next time friend this is were ill be when you think of me.

been kick around lost and then found called a fool the talk of the town I just pray just let find you so you know what I had to do

sippin margaritas, sinraritas passin by me asking me to stay but im gonna have to tell you no the spirits taken over
now its time to be alone

asking me to stay but im gonna have to tell you no the spirits taken over now its time to be alone p.s to all my supporters, we love you.
