

B5, All Over Again

Ohh Yeah
All Over and Over

[Verse One]

Why you gon give me back my chain
And you ain't even gon give me the chance to explain
It's so typical
We been here before
Ain't nothin changed
Why you gon give me back my chain
We just been through this babe
It's just like Groundhog Day
like yesterday
And the day before
And the day before that

[Chorus]

Girl I bet I know what you bout to say
You'll say that I'm a big liar
You're bout to say
You'll say you gettin sick and tired
And I'm gonna say
ooo your trippin
Girl I'm outta here
But this is how we play
Baby its okay

Girl I wanna do it all over again
Come on lets do it like we always do
Break up and make up and break up
And then we're making up
Here we go again
Oh girl
Can we argue all over
Get jealous all over
Cuz I like gettin back with you
Baby ooo
Lets do it over and over
All Over and over again

[Verse Two]

You always wear that dress I like
On the very same day that we just had a fight
thats so typical
We been here before
Ain't nothin changed
ohhh
All your girls stay in our biz
It's like they know before we
we even call it quits
When you throw your fits
I get over it
I can't even get mad

[Chorus]

Girl I bet I know what you bout to say
Girl I'm outta here
Baby its okay

Girl I wanna do it all over again (All Over Again)
Come on lets do it like we always do (we always do)

[Bridge]

You know I ain't gon leave
We mean too much to me
Even though we go through these changes on the regular girl
If it was any other girl
I'll be gone like yesterday

[Kelly]

That I'm feelin real serious
