

B5, When Will I See You Again

[Dustin:]

Ay, What's up baby?

I ain't seen you in awhile.

You know, I miss you.

And, I just gotta ask, one question

[Chorus: Patrick]

When will I see you again?

Will it be a month or a year?

Wish I could see you tomorrow

It's so cloudy when your not here.

[Patrick:]

I keep your picture close by (close by)

Just so I can stare in your eyes.(your eyes)

It feels so cold in the house (so cold, it's so cold)

That's just because you ain't around. oh

And when I lay down at night

I get so restless,

I can't sleep good baby. oh ooo oh

And when I wake up in the morning,

I'm still daydreamin' about you baby. oh

[Chorus: Patrick]

When will I see you again?

Will it be a month or a year?

Wish I could you tomorrow

It's so cloudy when your not here
