

Babe Rexha, Heart Wants What It Wants

My heart only wants what it wants what it wants what it wants til it doesn't
I can't promise you love it was love it was love it was love til it wasn't
Oh

Already met a man like you Already seen all your moves
One step ahead I'm on to you
I feel nothing
when we're loving when we're touching so go ahead and cry a river (go ahead and cry a river) you can go and fill the sea (you can go and fill the sea)

don't you know that you're just a game to me

My heart only wants what it wants what it wants what it wants til it doesn't
I can't promise you love it was love it was love it was love til it wasn't
Oh

So good til I get enough
So good til I give it up
So good but im only zoned on you cuz
My heart only wants what it wants what it wants what it wants til it doesn't
Oh

I've learned it all and numbed the pain
Theres just so many ways a heart can break
Can't hold a candle in the rain
I feel nothing
when we're touching when we're loving so go ahead and cry a river you can go and fill the sea

don't you know that you're just a game to me

My heart only wants what it wants what it wants what it wants til it doesn't
I can't promise you love it was love it was love it was love til it wasn't
Oh

So good til I get enough
So good til I give it up
So good but im only zoned on you cuz
My heart only wants what it wants what it wants what it wants til it doesn't

And it don't want you
You
Til til til it doesn't
You
And it don't want you
Til til til it doesn't

Til til til it doesn't
