

Babyface, I Care About You sometimes i feel so alone baby i call your heart but theres no one at home takin a toll on my pride im reachin no one inside you know it doesnt feel right when i look in your eyes i know love is blind but the heart doesnt lie ill ask on more time maybe this time youll try so tell me girl whats deep in your heart girl i care bout you im there for you

so why dont you care for me like i care about you i spend like all of my days baby trying to cuss out just how things got this way i thought that we were in love but i swear right now i dont know what you want i make sure that i give you quality time but lately i feel youre not home by desire but still im gunna try youre the love of my life in hopes that you will open your heart

HOOK 2 times

sometimes im not sure im all youve got sometimes im not sure if you love me or not one thing im certin of girl i care for you and the one thing that i want is that you care for me too
