

Babyface, Your Eyes

written by Babyface, Daryl Simmons (1998)

performed by Xscape

You're not in control when there's demands put on your heart
You don't even know, cause when it's real you fall too hard
And yet even so, you try to play like nothing's wrong
No you can't run away, there is no hiding place
'Cause you can't run from your heart

Your eyes they tell me secrets that you, you can't deny
Your eyes they show me feelings that you hold deep inside
How do I know the secrets that you try to hide
'Cause when I look in your eyes
The truth is a lie
I knew you'd be mine

So now that it's on, it's time to face reality
It's time to be strong, take all your insecurities, baby
Don't be afraid, you gotta let your feelings flow
No you can't run away, there is no hiding place
You gotta be true to your heart

HOOK

Now that you're all turned out
Don't you just love the way that it feels yeah
Yeah
Now you can't do without my love and you know that's for real
Now why you deny yourself I will never never never understand
Because I love you and you love me too
And that's just the way that it is yeah

HOOK to fade
