

Backfire!, Freedom

freedom

we still find it hard to believe that you're gone we still find it hard to believe what you've done if we only knew what you had on your mind if we could only find a way to talk to you just one more time

you've made the hardest choice someone could ever make you took the hardest step someone could ever take brother what you did it hurts us all inside we'll never understand why you just had to die why did you have to die?

We still can't believe you left us so suddenly

We still can't believe you became a memory

Oh it's so hard, so hard to lose you friend

Way to fast your life came to an end

Where ever you are now we hope you're finally free

A brother to us all is what you always be

We still can't believe you left us so suddenly

Our lives will go on although it's without you

But your spirit will remain in everything we do

In everything we do
