

BACKHAND BLUE, PARANOID

Fool me once
Why do people talk
And always say what they don't mean
Fool me twice
I keep on messing up
Cause I never learn from my mistakes
When did you think that this all would end
I'm not listening

I'm letting it go
Popping pills just to feel the world slow
I'm afraid when I feel so low
I'm creating confusion with my own delusion
I still feel so paranoid

Shame on you
For everything you put me through
Shame on me
I can't believe I didn't see the truth
In you

I'm letting it go
Popping pills just to feel the world slow
I'm afraid when I feel so low
I'm creating confusion with my own delusion
I still feel so paranoid

Hypocrite, narcissist
You won't admit
All your life counterfeit
I won't forget
GO

Hypocrite, narcissist
You won't admit
All your life counterfeit
I won't forget

I'm letting it go
Popping pills just to feel the world slow
I'm afraid when I feel so low
Im creating confusion with my own delusion
I still feel so paranoid
