

Backstreet Boys, Any Other Way

There you go, got to crash in my dreams again
Just when I'm trying to get over you
I tell my heart but I can't seem to comprehend
A day without you
Now you've gone, got a life
But I wear the scars, reminding me by the hour
That it's time to accept, it's the way things are
I wish I could but
I can't imagine it any other way
A world without you is only a wasted space
You're gone and I'll always wonder
Why it can't be any other way, any other way
Since you drained all the color out of the sky
How am I supposed to feel?
It's like I'm living in somebody else's life
Tell me it's not real
I can't imagine it any other way
A world without you is only a wasted space
You're gone and I'll always wonder
Why it can't be any other way, any other way
I can't imagine it any other way
A world without you is only a wasted space
You're gone and I'll always wonder
Why it can't be any other way, any other way
Like we never had a falling out
Like the tears had never hit the ground
Like you're still here, you're still here
Since you drained all the color out of the sky
I can't imagine it any other way
A world without you is only a wasted space
You're gone and I'll always wonder
Why it can't be any other way
I can't imagine it any other way
A world without you is only a wasted space
You're gone and I'll always wonder
Why it can't be any other way, any other way
