

Backstreet Boys, Callin' Your Name

Baby hear my cry
Despairs obviously set in my eye (in my eyes, I need you)
So bless me with your bliss
?? give this love a try (love a try, cause..)
[Chorus:]
G-Girl I need you bad, to heal this emptiness
Going through (withdrawal?), my life depends on you
You'll be my first and last
My everything in my dream, know that you'll hear me call'
I can feel you from a distance
So I know that your loves reaching out for me (out for me)
So you should use your intuition
Now just close your eyes and listen out for me (out for me)
Callin' your name, I can feel you reaching out to me
And my hearts callin' out your name
Callin' your name, even when youre far away
Nothing (will be?) ??? I'll never change, callin' your name
Everyday and night I need you in my arms
To hear this ?? breakin down ??
And you've been with me for so long
Now that you're gone, I just cant carry on (2x)
