

Backstreet Boys, I'm the manager of your dreams

I'm the manager of your dreams cuz I'll make all your dreams reality got a head fulla plans and schemes yeah you'll be toppin' the charts for eternity bookin' the tours and promotions hittin' the stores on the way Showin' my love and devotion each perfectly-managed day...
How would I manage without you?
You always know just what to do I'm so happy to give you your sixty percent need a glamorous manager just like you How would I manage
without the manager of my dreams?
You're the manager of my dreams thought I'm not sure watcha do, oh its all for you ever since I've been in your hands Life is New York and Paris and Malibu Helpin' me seem smart and funny tellin' me I'm lookin' good makin me truckloads a money like all dream managers should....
How would be manage
without you?
it's truly a dreamin' bein' me all the fabulous flash all the yachtes and cash all the manager stuff that you get to be how would we manage
without you?
oh girl you came down from above somebody has to do lunch and I've got to hunch you couldn't manage I couldn't manage
without the manager of my dreams...
