Ghetto You

(dregen, borg)

You wanna hear a story
A story `bout a broken man
You´re just trippin´ nowhere
Or is it hard for you to understand
That i´m a man

I´m so sick and tired of you
You better not touch me
I´m so sick and tired of you
And the crazy things you do
I´m getting sick and tired
I´m getting sick and tired

And i´ll die just to get to you
Baby, i will lie just to get to you
But i ain´t never gonna cry

So you wanna hear another story
Another story in a different place
But when it comes to lovin´;
I will leave you with a broken face
`cause i´m a man

I´m so sick and tired of you
You better not touch me
I´m so sick and tired of you
And the crazy things you do
I´m getting sick and tired
I´m getting sick and tired

And i´ll die just to get to you
Baby, i will lie just to get to you
But i ain´t never gonna cry
No way

I don´t believe that i will live forever
But i do believe that i will die
And i´m gonna drive by a hundred miles
`cause i´m a high-flying sucker with a super smile

Die
Just to get to you
Baby, i will lie just to get to you
But i ain´t gonna cry
Just to get to you
Baby, i will die
Just to get to you
Baby, i will die, die
Just to get to you
And, baby, i will lie
Just to get to you
But i ain´t gonna cry
Just to get to you
But, baby, i will die
Just to get to you
