

Backyard Babies, You Tell Me You Love Me You

When you burn out
There is no doubt
Nobody can hear you whine
So little space
It's in your face
Just draw the line then erase

I'm an armed detonator
A natural born separator
At the price of my time
At the price of my
motivation too
- Only when you tell me
you love me you lie x2

You're really late
I can not wait
I will not stay for the night
We separate and then we date
the last page!
Terminate

I'm an armed detonator
A natural born separator
At the price of my time
At the price of my
motivation too
- Only when you tell me
you love me you lie x2

I'm an armed detonator
A natural born separator
At the price of my time
At the price of my
motivation too
- Only when you tell me
you love me you lie x2

Can't make a promise
Last for a life!
