

Bacon Brothers, Getting There

WRITTEN BY MICHAEL BACON

I'm a man who likes to take his time
In the ways of love
Long gone that's where I am
When push comes to shove
But when I first laid eyes on you
My heart began to race
Now this whole things out of control
And I can't take the pace

Chorus

Cause you tell me I don't love you
You say I'll never care
Maybe I don't love you no no
But I'm getting there
Oh girl I'm getting there
You're the kind of woman
Who likes to take a chance
My friends keep saying go man
But I don't know this dance
Dizzy dazed and out of sorts
And almost out of time
Now this whole thing's out of control
And I'm out of my mind

Chorus

There you go again flashing those sexy eyes
Are you trying to ruin my day
I remember when my heart's disguise finally fell
And then you tell me

Chorus
