

Bad Company, Burnin' Sky (live)

Ooh yeah, yeah
The sky is burnin', I believe my soul's on fire
You are, I'm learning, the key to my desire
Waiting for the van to arrive
The prisoners were lined up outside
Jumped a wall hitched a ride and now I'm here to say
I love you baby anyway
The sky is burnin', I believe my soul's on fire
You are, I'm learning, the key to my desire
I run across the country fields in all the rain
They had guns and dogs and every thing
Swam a river tryin' to lose my trail
But they caught me under the bridge, oh yeah yeah
The sky is burnin', I believe my soul's on fire
You are, I'm learning, the key to my desire, yeah
Oh yeah, oh yeah yeah
Now the sky is burnin', I believe my soul is on fire
You are, I'm learning, the key to my desire, yeah yeah
The judge said, "This man's a danger to humanity
We're gonna lock him up and throw away the key"
Now baby your love has sent me to jail
And I'd rather die than see you with another man
See you with another man baby, oh yeah
Says burnin', burnin', burnin', burnin', burnin', burnin'
I'm working on the chain gang every day, yeah
But they can't keep me here and I'm not gonna stay
Got to get outta this place, oh I'll see my baby
Says burnin', oh yeah
Says burnin', burnin', burnin', burnin'
Says burnin', yeah yeah
My soul's on fire, my soul's on fire
