

Bad English, Heaven Is A 4 Letter Word

There's a rumor here and it's going 'round
Can you hear it on the street?
If you realize that the pleasure lies
Between surrender and the heat
Just take a walk on the wild side babe
And I'll meet you halfway there
And if you're talking about paradise
There's no need to say a prayer 'cause baby I'll take you there
Hey girl haven't you heard
Heaven is a four letter word
One touch is never enough
You'll find out when you enter the world
Heaven is a four letter word
Lose your innocence for experience
But you've got to take the chance
Can you rock and roll? Can you get down babe?
Cause it's tough for you to dance
Don't need to ride in a limousine
To feel like a millionaire
And if you're talking 'bout fantasy
It could happen anywhere baby I'll take you there
Hey girl haven't you heard
Heaven is a four letter word
One touch is never enough
You'll find out when you enter the world
Heaven is a four letter word
It's like love and kiss and it feels like this Baby don't wait too long
It's just me and you we know what to do
And it's a long way till dawn, yeah
Hey girl haven't you heard
Heaven is a four letter word
One touch is never enough
You'll find out when you enter the world
Heaven is a four letter word
Hey girl haven't you heard
Heaven is a four letter word
One touch is never enough
You'll find out when you enter the world
Heaven is a four letter word
Hey girl, oh yeah
Heaven is a four letter word
It's a four letter word
One touch, haven't you heard
Heaven is a four letter word, hey
Hey girl haven't you heard
Heaven is a four letter word
