

Bad Religion, Shattered Faith

The scientist purported that there ain't no purpose
And the theologian told me that it's all been designed
And I'm trying to maintain objectivity
The world won't illuminate what really matters
[Unverified]
Processing the complexity
Born of the earth
(Are we blind?)
We weren't given a choice
(There's no way)
What about free will?
(What we have)
Do we have a voice?
(Is shattered faith)
See them run in place
(Here and now)
In the human rat race
(No reward)
So much dead weight to our disgrace
(No debate, accept your fate)
Life begins when you accept your fate
Paralysis from forces raging out of control until
My confidence and will are at an all time low
Just direction less wandering
Eternal life, eternal truth, eternal secrets
Isolated hopes and hypotheses just
Leave me feeling so hungry
Born of the earth
(Are we blind?)
We weren't given a choice
(There's no way)
What about free will?
(What we have)
Do we have a voice?
(Is shattered faith)
See them run in place
(Here and now)
In the human rat race
(No reward)
So much dead weight to our disgrace
(No debate, accept your fate)
Life begins when you accept your fate
Right or wrong
The main criterion is what you do and not what you say
The roads you take, the friends you make and those you throw away
The method is a simple synthesis of the past and present state
You never lose if the path you choose is one you can easily navigate
I had a dream, light and carefree
But now there's doubt and gravity
But I won't run in place in the human rat race
(Are we blind? There's no way)
I can set the pace and accept my fate
(What we have, is shattered faith)
Shattered faith
(Here and now)
Shattered faith
(No reward)
The part of me, I can't erase
(No debate, accept your fate)
