

Badfinger, In The Meantime/Some Other Time

I can remember
Knowing you better some other time (low song)
I can remember
Being in love with a friend of mine

I've seen it before, now
It's always the same
Nothing can change any part
I know what you're doin'
I think it's a shame
I'm gonna have to make a new start
I can remember some other time

I could believe in, love has a reason for holdin' on (hold on)
I can remember being together and feeling strong

But somehow we lost it, drifted apart
It really took a piece of my heart
I've done it before now
It's always the same
I'm gonna have to make a new start
I can remember some other time

[guitar solo (Pete Ham)]

I've seen it before now
It's always the same
Nothing can change any part
I know what you're doin'
I think it's a shame
I'm gonna have to make a new start
I can remember some other time

I can remember some other time.
