

Badlees, The, Angeline is Coming Home

Badlees, The
River Songs
Angeline is Coming Home
Her parent's house exudes a reborn air
(naydock/badlees)
The bathtub virgins in the midnight air

Seem to smile in celebration
Her parents house exudes a reborn air
What an intercession
The bathtub virgins in the midnight air
All inertia washed away
Seem to smile in celebration

What an intercession
CHORUS
All inertia washed away
Resplendent in dignity

Angeline is coming home
(chorus)

Resplendent in dignity
I'd fantasize her clean and home again
Angeline is coming home
The quintessential reverie free of pain

Just to keep from going crazy
I'd fantasize her clean and home again
While the cracks had claimed her
The quintessential reverie free of pain
And now that fantasy sustained
Just to keep from going crazy

While the cracks had claimed her
CHORUS
And how that fantasy sustained

The beautiful acquaintance
(chorus)
I desired has inspired me

To levels unforeseen
The beautiful acquaintance
True admiration for someone who's
I desired has inspired me
Made it back from the hell she was in
To levels unforeseen

True admiration for someone who's
When do I see her?
Made it back from the hell she was in
What said when I do?

Do I let fantasized ideals come through?
When do i see her?
To hear her laugh at my hyperbole
What say when i do?
Would send me....
Do i let fantasized ideals come through?
It's nice to have her home and whole
To hear her laugh at my hyperbole would send me.....

It's nice to have her home and whole

(chorus)
