

Balance Of Power, If Ever

[Bonus track from Japan]

Do you see me how I see you?

Could you walk for one day in my shoes?

I'd like to be inside of you.

Through your eyes the world looks colder.

A sudden fear of empty space.

Can't shake the memory of you face.

I cannot hide, I know I've tried,

Maybe one day you'll come back I cried,

[Bridge:]

Remember the Love

Remember the pain,

Will things ever be the same,

[Chorus:]

If ever you need someone,

I'll be right here waiting,

If ever you need someone,

Baby call me, call me yeah,

The more I learn the less I know,

The less I know is better for me,

Making sense is no defence,

Losing you won't set me free,

You disappeared without a trace,

Can't shake the memories

of your face,

Now it's up to you,

I'm in your hands,

Bring back my heart and if you can,

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

[Guitar solo]

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

Remember the love...
