A Woman Like You

I know it's late babe, but I got to talk to you

No it can't wait babe, we got to talk it out now

Your so called friends, they're trying to break us up

They say that I'm cheating on you, that I can't allow

It won't take a minute to talk it out, I'll make you believe me somehow

Chorus:

There ain't a woman like you in the world baby

Can do what you do, thrill me like you do

There ain't a woman in the world, can start such a fire the way that you do

There ain't a woman like you, there ain't a woman like you, no

There ain't a woman like you, there ain't a woman like you

No use pretending to you, you know I've been around

Won't be no more lying lady, all that's in the past

You ain't the first girl I really loved, but you'll be the last

(chorus)

There ain't a woman like you in the world baby

Can do what you do, thrill me like you do

There ain't a woman in the world, can start such a fire the way that you do

There ain't a woman like you, no

There ain't a woman like you, no, no

There ain't a woman like you, no (repeats out)
