

Bananarama, If You Love Me

Couldn't get to sleep last night
Everything playing on my mind
You said you were leaving me
For another love

You could lose more than you find
Don't put our love on the line
Never give the heart away
To a fantasy, a foolish dream

So if you love me
Why would you throw it all away
Just for a moment's temptation
Think of the price you'll pay
So if you love me
Why do you hurt me this way
It's only infatuation
So don't throw it all away

I'm only saying do you play for me
Is love not build upon honesty
That's what I still believe
You can never hide
Your lying eyes

So if you love me
Why would you throw it all away
Just for a moment's temptation
Think of the price you'll pay
So if you love me
Why do you hurt me this way
It's only infatuation
So don't throw it all away

Why would you throw it
Why would you throw it
Why would you throw it all away
Just for a moment's temptation
Why would you throw it all away

So if you love me
Why would you throw it all away
Just for a moment's temptation
Think of the price you'll pay
So if you love me
Why do you hurt me this way
It's only infatuation
So don't throw it all away
