

Banaroo, Mamacita

Her name was Juanita and he was called Julio and on a hot summer night they met at the Plaza del Cordobez and hopelessly they fell in love She was a young girl who lived in Sevilla in the part where the poor people stay he was a good looking son of a rich man and heaven let this young girl pass his way And in her eyes he found all of the dreams he was dreaming in her heart he saw visions of love and he asked for un noche amor and mercy from heaven above Will you be with me tonight my mamacita
I keep praying to Santa Maria to help love survive I wanna lay by your side
my mamacita
we'll be together as one for the rest of our life Though he knew that his parents would never allow him to bring that girl to their place he took her hand and he said I'll love you forever but there was a tear on her face She said OH JULIO - te quiero and I want you more than I can say but we live worlds apart but he said: heaven may open the door that we can find with our heart Mi felicidad losing love is like the deepest cut feeling your emotion in the night of devotion I WANNA be with you heaven send a sign come on and see that falling starlight shine LYING close together we will know that forever our love will be strong and true
