

Banco De Gaia, We all know the truth (You Have

You have God...

Look at me with earnest eyes

And feel the truth in your heart...

Feel the sound around you

And feel the souls within..

Feel their smiling faces that surround you

Look into their mind see who you are...

Feel their smiling faces that surround you

Look into their mind see who you are...

I see the goddess in you as you stand in the moonlight...

I see the goddess in you as I watch dancing in the moonlight...

Dancing Smashing Twisting Burning

Spiral patterns spinning, swirling...

Dancing in the waves...

Dancing smashing patterns in the waves

Spinning, swirling patterns in the waves...

Feel compassion it waits

Feel compassion it waits for who you are...

Feel compassion...

Feel this is who you are...

You have God...

Look at me with earnest eyes

And feel the truth in your heart...

Feel the sound around you

And feel the souls within..

You have God

You have good

You have God

You have good

You have God

You have good

You have God

You have good...

You...
