

Band Of Horses, Part One

The bottom the earth i have to fall
But you really caught me.
You really caught me, Dear
At the bottom where i'd fallen.

And slowly dear ask that you dance with me
Here with the shades down, the lights off

When i didn't know you
and everything i do, done badly

Now, I'll love you always
Even when i say you distract me.

And sit out tonight in some strange place
If we have no friends here
Well, i had a few to begin with

To wake next to you in the morning and good morning to you.
How do you do?
Hey, good morning to you!
And more covers for you.
Sleep soundly, Dear, 'cause I have to go.

And I'll love you always.
When we leave this place and drive back to Carolina and down to Savannah and stay.
