Music From Big Pink

Lonesome Suzie

C e7 am fmaj7 bb c

Lonesome suzie, never got the breaks

E7 am g

She's always losing so she sits and cries and shakes

C e7 am f bb c

It's so hard just to watch her, and if i touch her

Eb bb c am c g c

Oh, poor suzie, i'm wondrin' what to do

She just sits there, hoping for a friend

I don't fit here, but i may have a friend to lend

Maybe i mistook her, but i can't overlook her

Must be someone who can pull her through

E7 am fmaj7 bb c

Anyone who's felt that bad could tell me what to say

E7 am g

Even if she'd just get mad, she might be better off that way

C e7 am

And where is all the understanding

Fmaj7 bb c

Her problems can't be that demanding

Eb bb c am

Why is it she looks that way

C gsus4 c

Every time she starts to cry?

Lonesome suzie, i can't watch you cry no longer

If you can use me until you feel a little stronger

I guess just watching you has made me lonesome too

Why don't we get together,

Dm7 g7 c

What else can we do?
