

Barathrum, Halfheart

the shepherdess and the sheep the domina and the slave half heart of the sheep symbol of the weak one
the shepherdess and the herd
just another sheep of the herd only half of the heart it is simply not enough not enough to survive to survive by itself

halfheart so weak no own power and will no power at all

half hearted sheep, in safe of shepherdess no own will to live, just waiting for the end only half of the heart, it is simply enough half heart of the sheep, just another sheep of the herd beast wanders in night beast in the hunt

beast lies in ambush beast attacks to the prey beast with full heart beast so brave and so strong beast attacks to it's prey beast and the half hearted prey fatal force in the jaws lacerates the sheep

better for the prey
to get quick death

merciless hunter bites tears to countless pieces the flesh of the prey and blood colours ground red
