

Barbara Mandrell, Fooled by a Feeling

Fooled by a feeling, I was fooled
I followed my heart right into your arms
Like you wanted me to
Fooled by a feeling, lying with you
I thought it was love but it was only a touch
And when you left me, I knew
I was fooled by a feeling
Now I'm feeling like a fool
You whispered, I love you
All through the night
You made love so easy to believe
Your touch was so gentle
The feeling was right
But I was wrong for believing you loved me
I was fooled by a feeling, I was fooled
I followed my heart right into your arms
Like you wanted me to
Fooled by a feeling, lying with you
I thought it was love but it was only a touch
And when you left me, I knew
I was fooled by a feeling
Now I'm feeling like a fool
Fooled by a feeling, I was fooled
I followed my heart right into your arms
Like you wanted me to
Fooled by a feeling, lying with you
I thought it was love but it was only a touch
And when you left me, I knew
I was fooled by a feeling
Now I'm feeling like a fool
Fooled by a feeling
Now I'm feeling like a fool
By a feeling, I was fooled
I followed my heart right into your arms
Like you wanted me to
