

Barbara Mandrell, Hold Me (1977)

Barbara Mandrell

Miscellaneous

Hold Me (1977)

Hold me let me be a little girl again

Don't want a lover now I need a friend

And a warm safe place to be

Hold me don't want to talk and I don't want to smile

I only want to hide and rest awhile

And have you holding me

I don't want to think about the world outside your arms

Everything it cause's me to do

I'm all out of giving let me take just for a minute

Sometimes I need to be a baby too

Have you hold me, let me be a little girl again

Don't want a lover now I need a friend

And a warm safe place to be

Hold me, don't want to talk and I don't want to smile

I only want to hide and rest awhile

And have you hold me

Just hold me, don't want to talk and I don't want to smile

I only want to hide and rest awhile

And have you hold me